Class 11 Small/Lightweight Amateur Ridden Hunter, mare or gelding, 4 y.o. or over,
(Qualifier for Royal International Horse Show 2023)

A person is an amateur for showing purposes, when showing ridden hunters in amateur classes, if he or she does not during the current or previous year:

- (a) engage in breeding, livery, buying, selling, dealing or hiring horses in a commercial capacity or as a means of deriving a main source of income
- (b) receive remuneration whether it be monetary or goods in kind for employment in connection with horses in racing, showing, livery stable or riding school (instruction at Pony Club and Riding Club excepted). This does not include the suppliers of ancillary services such as farriers and vets.

- (c) Own/part own an equestrian establishment including but not limited to riding schools, events centre, stud or livery yard in any capacity, or receive any form of remuneration for employment at an equestrian establishment. For the avoidance of doubt for the purpose of this rule, immediate family members of an owner or part owner of an equestrian establishment who work or are howsoever otherwise engaged or involved in any capacity, whether or not for remuneration at the equestrian establishment, will be treated as being an owner or part owner of that equestrian establishment.
- (d) show a horse owned or sponsored by a company or commercial firm, or act as a Brand Ambassador, in any showing classes, SHB(GB) or otherwise, or a Horse for which his/her immediate family accepts livery or training charges from a person outside the immediate family concerned. A competitor is not eligible to compete in Amateur classes on an Exhibit which has been ridden by a professional rider in any Open classes, SHB(GB) or otherwise, with the exception of Open Working classes and Side-Saddle classes during the current year and the following year, up to but not including the Royal International Horse Show.
(The above Rule does not apply if the horse has been professionally produced and ONLY ridden by a professional during the current season, or if the horse has subsequently been sold and re-registered under new ownership)
- (e) if you ride/compete equines on a regular basis, which you do not stable at home, your Amateur status will be reviewed by the Board/Council, i.e. if you ride/compete multiple equines or ride regularly for one or more owners, you could be deemed professional.

On the day when an Exhibit is competing in Amateur classes, Professionals including Professional Grooms, are not allowed to ride, to work-in (in any form), compete or enter the Ring to groom/strip the horse
